Fitness Notes with Dana Britton - Fitness Director

With January behind us, the trick for February is to keep motivated. If you're starting to slump, why not give something new a try? The Club is offering some special programming to help you do just that.

Start your weekends with a Friday night strength training class with Erica then stop by the lounge and meet some of the other members.

If it's core strength you're after, Kitty is offering a Pilates series on three Saturday afternoons in February.

Still haven't tried Spin? Sign up for Melissa's Valentine's Day Feature Spin class and give some love to your own heart.

Or find rhythmic movement, power and grace in Johanna's Feature Nia class on the 23rd.

Maybe what you're after is a kick start. Erica will give you just that in Booty Camp. If you've got a hot holiday planned for Spring Break (or even if you don't) then sign up and Get Fabulass!!!

See posters for more details or check it out online. Make this a fantastic February!
